IV. Committee Reports

- a. The Exhibits- Judy Azemove and Carol Peterson discussed the Not for Sale Wall and the Exhibit Exchange. For Gold Members wishing to display, all artwork needs to be brought to the Art club the morning of Oct 25th. Please concentrate on displaying new art work. Contact one of them for details.
- b. Jewelry Exchange – Marg Melchionda. The Club is allowing new forms of art such as painted gourds and skulls. Information at the Art Club as to size and quantities of each type allowed.
- c. Market Day is Saturday, October 4, 2019
- d. Computer Room Exchange. Those who want to show their work need to get their images to Pat O'Brien by Oct.11. Pat O'Brien requests her email be included for all pieces to be submitted for the computer room. All pieces must be the appropriate size/dimension. Exchanges will take place 3 times/year. Next exchanges will be February and May.

- e. Education Committee . Don McPartlan reviewed upcoming new classes and artists. Contact Don if you are interested in helping on the Education Committee.
  - f. Monitor Training. Next general Monitor Training class (refresher inclusive) is October 10th. In November we expect to offer the two focused sessions- new and refresher. There is a need for someone to help with a Monitor Refresher Class.
  - g. Social Committee. Michelle Hanson and Theresa Trapnell are Social Coordinators for upcoming social events. These are events where art items are not for sale. Trivia Night is November 1st. Dave Cowles volunteered to organize this event. There will be tables for teams of 4 participants. Members may choose their teams do four or participate on your own. No need to participate to attend. Cost is $10 per person. Winter Wonderland is the next scheduled event. A volunteer is needed to head that event. Contact either Michelle Hansen or Theresa Trapnell interested.
  - h. Fall/Spring Fest. Susan Dickey is organizing the Fall and Spring Fest. You must be a Gold Member to sell your art work. The Fall event is November 9th, with the meeting on November 7th. There are 3 forms that must be completed and submitted to Susan by November 8th in order to participate. Arlen Madole and Mickey Rynn volunteered to assist. Forms are at the Art Club along with Volunteer Sign Up Sheet.
- V. New Business. There was a question as to whether the Club needs a class to teach Monitors how to complete the Sold Art Work Form on the computer. After discussion it was decided anyone needing that training should sign up for Shadow/Buddy training with a trained Monitor.
- VI. Drama Club Pilot Partnership. A member from the SCG Drama Club presented a pilot partnership between the two clubs. The Art Club would assist in the design of the 13 sets for the musical Guys and Dolls. The $400.00 budget will be paid by the Drama Club. Lynn Brown, Mickey Rynn, Pat O'Brien and Nancy Alpert-Yarush have volunteered to work on this pilot project.
- VII. Drawing. Al Reamer won the $25.00 gift card to Arizona Art Supply
- VIII. Demonstration by Trevor Swanson, Nationally Acclaimed Wild Life Oil Painter. Trevor is offering a class, The Art of Nature, Tuesday, October 8, 2019 from 9:00am-4:00pm.
